NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty cents per week.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance of twenty-five per cent on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be seventy-five cents per month, or four dollars for six months, or seven dollars per year—always in advance.

CITY NEWS.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION WILL MEET AT
Louisville, June 28, 1864.

THE EVENING NEWS.—This paper is promptly issued upon the receipt of the last dispatches in the afternoon (ordinarily by 2:45 P.M.), and contains the very latest news by telegraph and the local news of the day up to the hour of publication. It sensibly consists from eighteen to twenty columns of reading matter, and is sold by news boys in all portions of the city. It is also furnished to subscribers in all parts of the city at the RATE OF THE CENTS PER WEEK. Subscribers leaving their names at the clerk's desk or with the carriers will be promptly served. The Evening News has a wide and increasing circulation. It affords most excellent facilities to advertisers. It is sold by the newsboys alone sometimes reaches three thousand copies. It is read by everybody, and merchants would serve themselves by placing their cards in its columns. Terms reasonable.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Monday, June 20.—Polish Bullock, slave of Throgmorton, disorderly conduct; she attacked for Good yesterday, on Lafayette street; $100 for three months.

Mary Harmon and Mary Heck, stealing a breastplate worth less than $4; discharged.

Charles McCoy, drunkenness, &c.; fined $3.

Richard Craig, stealing coat, pants, &c., from different persons at the stable of the Transfer Company; continued until to-morrow.

Chas. Myers, whose case was heard on Saturday for the Commonwealth and continued until to-day for defendant, was held in $600 to answer in the Circuit Court.

Nicholas Hansen, disorderly conduct—interfering with police officers; discharged.

Charles Sullivan (blind Charley), stealing a breastplate worth less than $4 from Henry Chambers, at one of the dens of infamy of which our city is held; held to answer a fine of $100.

Paul Jerome, drunk and disorderly conduct—beating his wife; fined $5.

Bridget Gorman and Bridget Garney, drunk and disorderly conduct; fined each $5.

Jas. McLean, drunkenness; fined $5.

Rachael Stephens and Rebecca Barr, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; Barr sent to Almshouse, Stephens held in $500 for one year.

Jasper Terry, presented as a suspected felon; discharged.

Walter Johnston, slave of Wm. Johnston, and Frank, slave of Calvin Campbell, disorderly conduct; discharged.

Pat. Riley, assault on Nick Davis, and Davis assaulting Mrs. Riley; master sent before the Grand Jury.

OUTRAGE.—There was a picnic given at Spring Garden yesterday, which was attended by a large number of our citizens. As a lack, in which there were four persons, was returning to the city, it was halfed by a party of soldiers. The driver informed them that he had a load, and could not stop. Without any further provocation the soldiers drew their sabers and commenced firing at the lack, but fortunately they hit no one. Such conduct as this is outrageous, and the parties guilty of it should be severely punished.

Yesterday twelve officers belonging to Morgan's command were transferred to Johnson's Island from the military prison in this city. Two hundred and forty-five privates and non-commissioned officers belonging to the same command will be sent to Rock Island to-day. We understand that there are still some two hundred or two hundred and fifty of Morgan's command at Nashville, who will be brought to this city in the course of a few days.

OUTRAGE.—Conduct by Boys.—Yesterday a party of small boys, who reside in the upper portion of the city, were guilty of the most outrageous and disgraceful conduct. They, without any provocation either by word or act, assaulted an old man by the name of Walters, who is a cripple, taking from him his crutches. They then commenced throwing stones at him, one of which struck the old man in the head, inflicting a very painful wound.

NEW DISTRICT PROVOST MARSHAL.—We learn that Capt. Jones was yesterday relieved as Provost Marshal for the district of Kentucky by order of Gen. Burbridge, and Lieut. Vance, A. D. C. to the General, appointed in his place. Capt. Jones was some time since appointed to take command of the soldiers passing through the State, and he will remain here in the discharge of that duty.

Fire.—The alarm of fire yesterday was occasioned by the bursting of a copper shop in Butcherrow. The shop, which was owned by Mrs. Newell, was entirely consumed, together with considerable material which it contained. The loss will amount to about $700. We did not learn whether it was insured or not.

We mentioned in the Democrat a few days since the arrest of J. Farnold, for the utterance of disloyal sentiments. Since the time of his arrest he has been confined in the military prison until yesterday afternoon, when he was discharged from custody.

We mentioned a few days since that a paymaster in this district had been robbed of $40,000. We are now happy to be able to state that the whole amount has been found and returned to the paymaster.

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—New counterfeit $5 bills on the Kentucky Stock Bank, Columbus, Indiana, have been put in circulation. They are an imitation of the genuine, but very poorly executed.

J. W. Rodgers, who was arrested a few days since and confined in the military prison, yesterday had an examination before the Provost Marshal and was released.

The Terrible Raid in Trimble Co., Ky.
In our issue of Saturday we had a dispatch from Madison, Ind., which stated that a rebel force had entered the town of Bedford, Ky., and taken possession of the place, that they had captured the Provost Marshal and others, and were threatening to hang them.

A friend of ours who heard of this force (reported some two hundred and fifty strong) left our city on Saturday evening to look after his property there. He says he rode into the town cautiously, expecting at every step to be challenged by some picked from the rebel army. He passed, into the very center of the town, having first surrounded the place as well as he could—a decent, but no rebel came forth—no bushwhacker made his appearance. Bedford was in his possession, undisputed by "any other man." He made diligent inquiry in regard to the hostile force, and all agreed in the statement that on Thursday or Friday—he is not positive which—two rebels rode into the town—only two—and called for the Provost Marshal, whom they had taken extra pains to conceal. If these were as strong as represented in our Madison dispatch, for he did not feel able to compete with that amount of force.
